

Alpha Fire Company

"The Company Officer"

DAVE POLIKOFF

COMMAND UNDER FIRE

This class is designed to teach and challenge the new company officer. During this program we will discuss what it takes to be a good Incident Commander. This class will show you what traits help to run a successful incident and how to get the most out of your people. We will review the basics of officer development. On-scene reports, tactical considerations and assigning tasks to personnel are just a few.

"THE 1st TEN MINUTES: OPERATIONS W/ LIMITED MANPOWER"

The old saying goes "As the first line goes, so goes the fire". Well what other tasks and objectives can be performed while that initial line is being put into service. From establishing combative command, to search, throwing ladders, vent, water supply or stretching a 2nd line. How to use the limited manpower to effectively and safely get critical fire ground tasks accomplished.
